AMONG OUR MEMORIES... THE CAMPUS

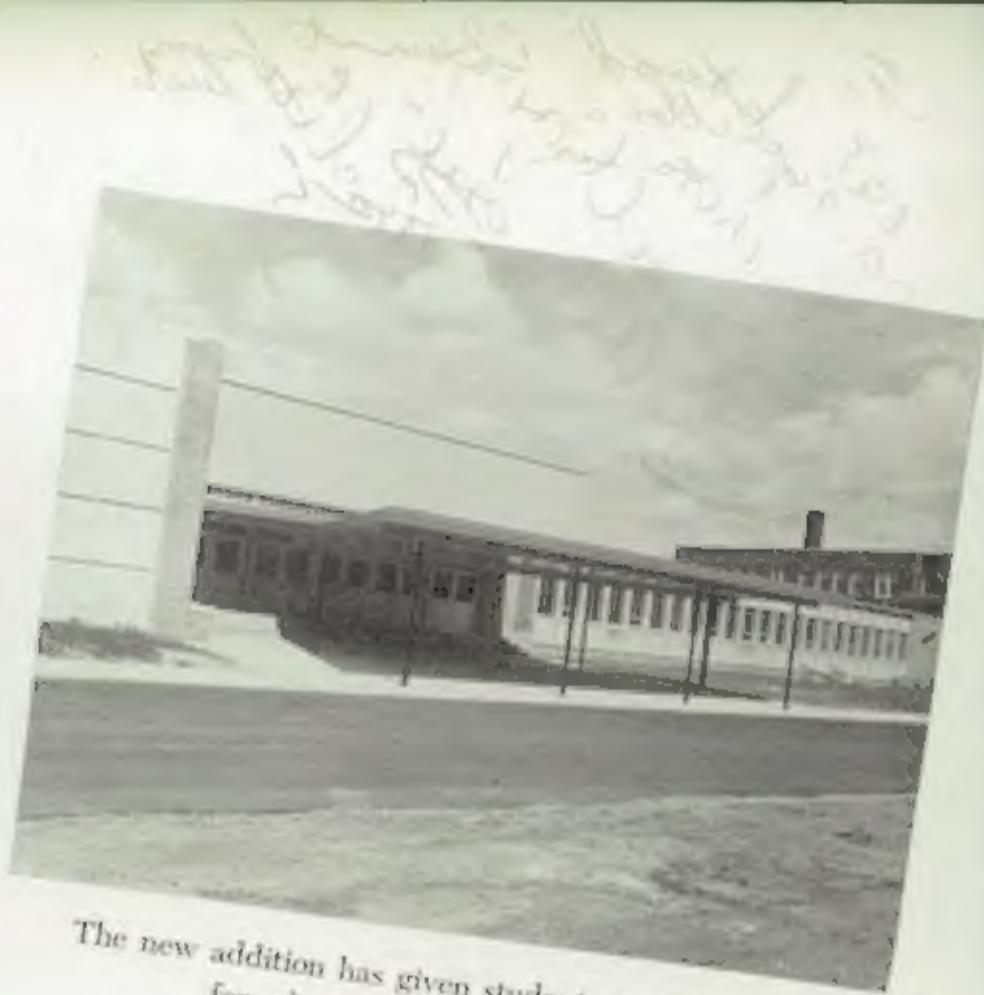

In looking back to our freshman year we remember how surprised we were at the enormous size of the building which we have called our part-time home for the past four years. It looked cheerful enough, but it was oh so big! Often, we wondered whether we would ever get to know it. However, by our sophomore year we were adjusted to our environment, and the building began to take on a new meaning for us. Our school certainly filled the description of a perfect school. The building was pleasing to the eye as well as being a comfortable place in which to live and work. A school should be designed to furnish a healthful and stimulating atmosphere and provide surroundings which the students will enjoy. Our school certainly excelled in these respects.

It is easy to see how pleasantly the outer features of the building suggest the building's use and its inner construction. The tower on the older addition represents our desire to reach for and gain higher knowledge. The sleek lines of the new addition, which was added since our freshman days, symbolize the new facilities and the latest methods of teaching being used in our school.

The design of the building indicates it is a happy and good place in which to learn. Yes, we can certainly be proud of and will always remember the structure which has housed us during some of the best years of our lives.

Winter snows add to the beauty of the school.

The new addition has given students opportunities for education and recreation.

The new addition houses a double gym, swimming pool, spacious band-chorus rooms, and modern classrooms.

ADMINISTRATION

ADMINISTRATION . . .

Our new superintendent, Paul M. Loofboro.

To the Class of 1960:

As I write these lines, it is a beautiful spring day, 1960. I feel certain that this year will live in the memory of each of you and me as a very special year. I have been letting my mind run ahead 25 years to 1985 when many of you certainly will be re-reading these lines and looking at the many wonderful features of your high school life of 25 years ago. Everyone has heard of the good old days, a sort of golden period which exists in the mind of practically every person old enough to recall the past.

Increasing age and advancing years will bring each of us increased responsibility and greater power to comprehend and appreciate problems.

It often requires determined effort to avoid being discouraged when these factors break into our conscious realization, but perseverance will nearly always win. We must cling soberly to the wonderful heritage of our culture and press on with the spirit of youth. In this way we will not only extend our enjoyment and satisfaction from life, but we can actually make the good old days live on.

It is important to remember that your "good old days" were created by someone who carried more than his share of responsibility at a time when you were unaware of it.

These opportunities are now your responsibilities.

Sincerely,
PAUL M. LOOFBORO

BUILDING A BETTER SCHOOL

Mr. Duke Lusk, a senior, and Mrs. Ann Hutter, late book Mr. Carl G. Stroh, the teacher.

A successful institution can only be as successful as its administration. Since our school ranks high academically not only in the state but also in the nation, the administration behind it is to be commended. In this final year, we seniors more fully realize the important part each member of the faculty has played in molding our minds and in developing our characters. Under the able guidance of Mr. Fred Schultz, who has efficiently served as our principal for eight years, and of our new superintendent of the West Bend Public Schools, Mr. Paul Loosboro, our staff of 60 teachers has been able to give us a well-rounded program.

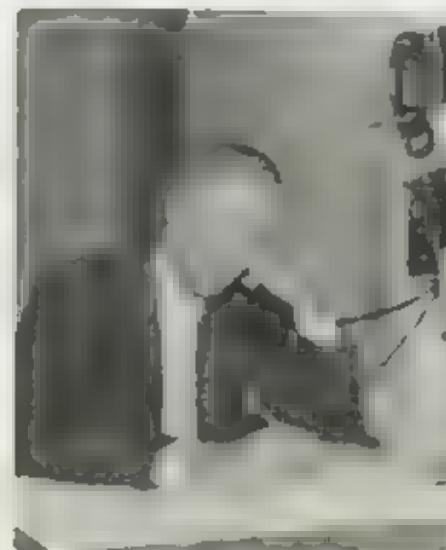

The true definition of school administration is, "a group of people set up for the sole purpose of teaching." From this it is evident that our teachers have gone beyond the call of duty. The extra-curricular needs are pegged very carefully to meet the desires of every student. College bound students, as well as the career-minded, are adequately prepared to meet life's demands. The graduating class of 1960 will be the largest in the history of our school, and as graduating seniors we are appreciative for the guidance, knowledge, and development of character given us.

Our school has gained recognition for its teaching staff and for the fine buildings and beautiful campus. For the latter recognition, we tip our hats to the custodial staff

FRESHMEN . . . GETTING ACQUAINTED

President Janet Claybaugh -- Secretary-treasurer Cherry Ziegler

Many of our classmates captured school honors. We were proud to have Janet Claybaugh escorted by Floyd Buddenhagen, as our representative on the Homecoming court.

Many of us participated actively in debate and forensics. Karen Kling, Darlene Maher, and Ann Monroe brought honors to our class when they received A ratings in the Freshman-Sophomore forensic meet at Berlin.

In sports, our class was well represented. We were especially proud when Bonnie Kirkland was promoted to the varsity basketball team at mid-season. Cheering on our fine freshman team were cheerleaders Sue Jeffery, Joan Knoebel, Joan Lurke, Diane Schultz, Diane Simons, and Mary Weber.

We closed the year's activities by helping stage the Freshman-Sophomore Mayball, which served as a fitting climax to our freshman year. Now we look forward to 1961 when we will be sophomores.

Barbara Nicholas, Ann Gessert and Kathy Collins work on Christmas door decorations.

The class of "63" made its official debut at West Bend High School on September 8, 1959. We were an uninitiated group, trying to find our way through the maze of strange corridors. However, it wasn't long before we became oriented.

Class elections were our first major concern. After balloting we installed Janet Claybaugh, Joan Knoebel, and Cherry Ziegler, as our president, vice-president, and secretary-treasurer respectively. They did a fine job of organizing the class activities for the year, and we were ready for an active part in school affairs.

SOPHOMORES . . . KEEPING BUSY

After weathering the trials and tribulations of the freshman year, we finally won the privilege of being called "upperclassmen." We were determined that our sophomore year would be marked by successful achievements. And, it certainly was.

At the beginning of the year we elected the following class officers: President Jack Stoltz, Vice-president Toni Kasten, and Secretary Chris O'Meara.

The first big event of the year was Homecoming, and we chose lovely Betty Marks to represent us on the Court of Honor. Bob Borchert was Betty's escort.

Sophomore boys did a fine job in sports this year. We are especially proud of Jeff Habig, who played on the varsity basketball squad. Backing our boys in basketball and football was Sharon Frank, varsity cheerleader. Sharon Quade and Betty Marks also displayed pep and enthusiasm on the "B" cheerleading squad.

We also did a fair job in such activities as debate and operetta. Dee Dee Brown, Sandy Crabb and Toni Kasten performed excellently in forensics, while Karen Laubenstein, Sharon Frank, Sue Grundahl, Sandy Crabb, Chris O'Meara, and Jerry Iverson had important roles in the operetta.

The biggest event of the year for us was the Fall Prom, when we transformed the YAC into an imaginative "Toyland." It provided a wonderful atmosphere of frolic and fantasy.

As we survey the events of the past year we realize what a wonderful and profitable time we had. We look forward with eager anticipation to the next two years.

Mark Gonring, Bob Lorenz, and Mike Vrana test themselves with the depth-perception machine.

THE MEN WITH NESTS

JUNIORS . . . WORKING TO REACH A GOAL

"Finally, I'm an upper classman," was the thought which ran through many minds as we started our junior year. Spirits were high, for everyone was planning the things he would do. Many succeeded as the record will show.

Going through the halls, you could see the cheerful faces of our newly-elected class officers: Jane Bauer, secretary-treasurer; John Metz, vice-president, and Bob Wegner, president. Now, with efficient leaders, we started to work and plan.

Homecoming time found us busily designing our floats for the big parade. Our efforts were rewarded when Mr. Grignon's homeroom took second place with the winning motto: "Heads we win; tails they lost." We were proud to be represented on the Court by Sherry Knoebel, whose escort was Norman Korneli. Juniors Jane Bauer and Sue Bradley led us in cheers as we watched our classmates perform on the gridiron. Outstanding on the football field were Paul Fisher, Richard Hess, Chuck Placek, and Doug Potter. With the help of fellow juniors, next year's team should be tops.

Other honors, of an academic nature, were garnered by outstanding juniors who were selected to become members of the National Honor Society. Chosen on the basis of leadership, scholarship, service, and character were Jane Bauer, Linda Baumann, Noreen B. Lai, Sue Bradley, Paul Fisher, Jeanne Hammes, John Metz, Kenney Schowalter, Mary Sheski, Gary Schott, Eric Skuldt, Karen Skuldt, and Ruth Wegener.

Mr. Grignon watches while Sue Bradley "sniffs" a bottle of hydrogen sulfide

In the pre-Christmas door decoration contest, we were especially pleased when Mr. Grignon's and Mr. Weier's homerooms earned awards.

Junior boys also excelled on the cage court and among them were: Jamie Gibson, John Metz, Doug Potter, Steve Roecker, Bob Sauer, Mike Weber, and Clarence Zimbrick. Juniors also contributed their efforts to many other activities such as debate and forensics.

"Bali Hai," the misty dreamy isle of enchantment, was the theme for the big social event of the year — the Junior Prom.

This year was an exciting and glorious one for many of us, and we found ourselves feeling a bit sad to see this wonderful year come to a close. At the same time, we can't help but wonder what the next year will have in store for us.

AS WE RELIVE EACH MEMORY . . .

REMINISCENT THOUGHTS OCCUR

As graduation draws near, we the members of the class of 1960 cannot help but look back over our four years in high school, remembering with mingled emotions the many experiences we have had in the halls and classrooms of WBHS. We depart regretfully, knowing that we are leaving behind true and loyal friends. We also experience feelings of joy, knowing that we have accomplished a great deal in these four years.

Who, among us, will ever forget "Freshman Day" as we gazed in awe at the huge building which was to be our home for the next four years? Our bewildered expressions revealed just how "green" we were.

It didn't take us long to become oriented under the guidance and leadership of our class officers: President Mike Johnson, Secretary Mandy Weikum, and Vice-president Bill King. For Homecoming we chose charming Jeanne M. Weiss to represent us on the court-of-honor. Our freshman boys made a good showing in sports, with John Klein breaking into the starting line-up in varsity basketball. In all we had a busy and profitable year, enjoying our initial experiences in high school.

With the completion of the freshman year, the step into our sophomore year with its additional responsibilities was not difficult.

Top right -- As sophomores we decorated for the Jubilee Rock

As sophomores we took pride in our new status as upperclassmen. As the days slipped by our accomplishments and honors grew. Class elections gave us the following as officers: President John Klem, Vice-president Bill King, and Secretary-treasurer June Schultz.

Our first big activity again was homecoming and we selected June Schultz to represent us on the court. We jumped for joy when Mr. Runkel's homeroom placed second in the float competition.

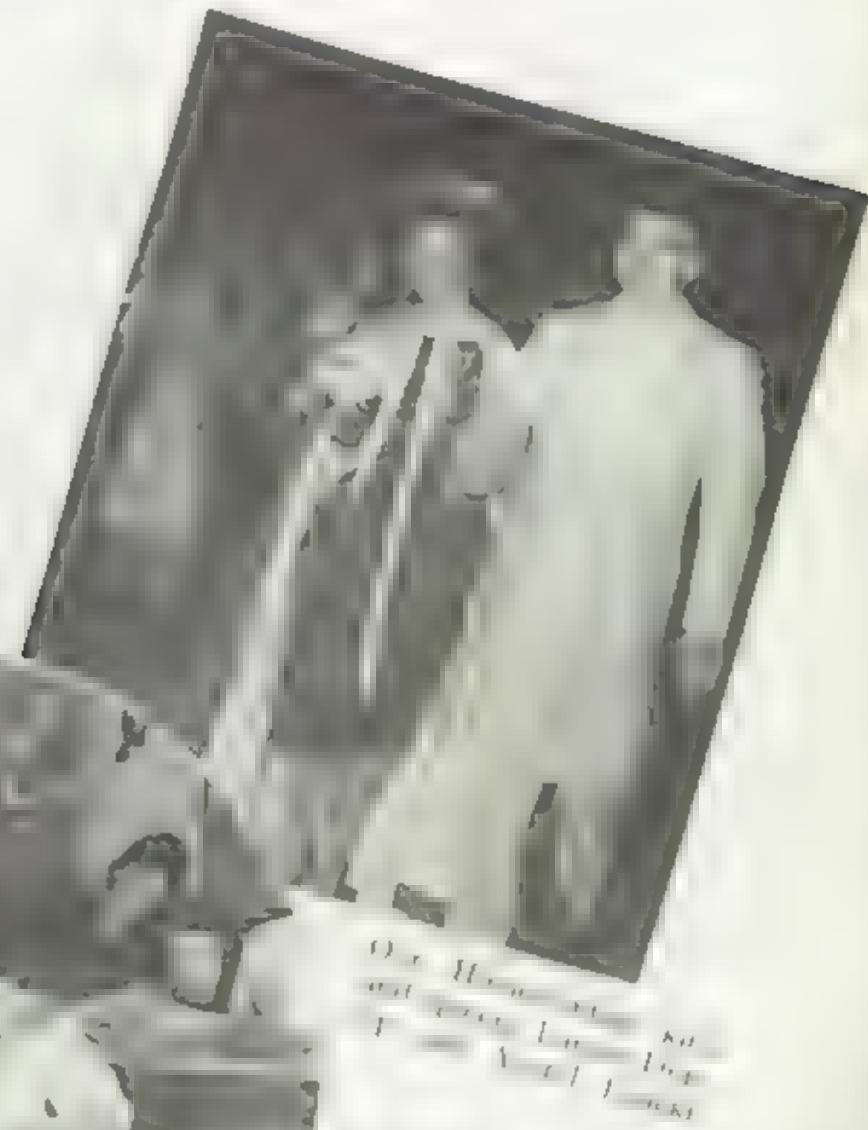

In sports, our boys started on both the varsity and 'B' teams. Bill King and Bob Stoffel played "A" football, while John Klem and Bill King were stand-outs as cagers. On the sidelines, leading cheers for them, was Penny Harth, our contribution to the "A" cheerleading squad.

The most important activity on our calendar was our Post-Prom party. Under June Schultz' capable direction we succeeded in transforming the gym into a beautiful "Isle of Golden Dreams" and thus climaxed a highly successful sophomore year.

Juniors at last! After lengthy debate on whether the class president should serve as prom king or whether two people should be elected to fill the posts, it was decided to elect two different persons. We then set about electing our class officers who were as follows: President Jeff Hoy, Vice-president Laurie Dunlop, and Secretary-treasurer Kay Pleshek. We also had two junior boys holding offices in the Student Senate -- Bill King, president, and John Klein, vice-president.

At homecoming time we were proud that the royal crown was placed on the head of our junior candidate, Laurie Dunlop. Sally Stanfield showed pep and enthusiasm on the varsity cheerleading squad while junior boys took honors in basketball, football, and track.

Many juniors played important roles in our speech program but two juniors deserve special mention for their outstanding debate work. Steve Werner and Judy Nimitz traveled to Florida during the summer of 1959 as representatives of WBHS at the National Debate Tournament.

Of course we will never forget our Junior Prom! We worked hard to turn the gym into a Spanish paradise where King Bob Stoffel could dance with his Queen, Ann Meyer.

Senate Officers -- President Bill King and Vice-president John Klein.

MOMENTS OF FOOLISHNESS . . .

were excellently performed by John Klem, Laurie Dunlop, and Jon Barber. Proudly we remember the seniors who participated in forces and the Clipper and Bird work. We remember what a fine job our Clipper editors, Judy Wiemeyer and Penny Harth, did in bringing us the news at its best.

On graduation night, as the procession was being played, we reminisced nostalgically over these wonderful events and achievements. Four of the best years of our lives have been spent in the classrooms and corridors of WBLHS, and now these years have become a part of the cherished past. With these thoughts in mind we, the class of 1980, received our diplomas, and the future became ours.

Finally we were seniors! As the days swiftly slipped away, we tried to recapture some of those wonderful times, but they were gone. Only their memories will live on, leaving us to work and plan for the future.

Early in the term we elected the following officers: John Tollack, president; Pat Randall, vice-president; Pat Hetzel, secretary and Nancy Frank, treasurer.

Senior boys starred on all the athletic teams, but we especially remember: John Klem's performances in basketball; Tom Weber, swimming; Tom Schowalter, track; Bernie Spaeth, football, and Mark Mayer, baseball. Backing these boys were our varsity cheerleaders Laurie Dunlop, Ruth Koll, and Sally Standfield.

Senior class members also excelled in dramatics and choral work. Leading roles in the operetta

OUR JUNIOR PROM . . .

OUR JUNIOR PROM KING AND QUEEN

Memory — it brings us joys faint as is the smell of that first corsage, withered and dried, of the first prom that is gone. . .

In turning the pages of our scrapbook, we come upon a small gold fan and a withered corsage, souvenirs of our Junior Prom. We find ourselves reminiscing over pale, fluffy formals and soft, dreamy music. We can picture ourselves dancing to the music of Harry Rothman and his eight-piece band amidst a setting of magnolia trees and ferns.

We remember how wonderful everything looked; the gym was completely transformed to suit our theme, which was a very romantic one, "Moonlight Serenade." On entering the gym we walked through a rose-covered lattice which domed the main door. From there we walked down a path, bordered by a stone wall, to a park resplendent with pink and white flowers. In this setting the previous year's royalty, Charlotte

Frankow and Pat Kenny, crowned our king and queen Bob Stoffel and Ann Meyer.

What a wonderful job June Schultz and yes, all of us juniors, did in making those gaily decorated hacienda windows, which carried out our Spanish theme. The iron-railed balcony was beautifully camouflaged by huge colorful fans, ferns, and flowers.

We will never forget how happy and thrilled Bob and Ann looked as they led their royal court in the Grand March and how wonderful everything was because it was our once-in-a-lifetime Junior Prom.

As the hacienda doors closed behind the departing guests, we remember how we continued the evening's festivities in the YAC. "Carousel" was the theme of the sophomore sponsored post-prom, and entertainment and food was presented to all who entered the circus world atmosphere.

On all sides of the YAC were painted huge clowns in bright, cheerful colors. In keeping with the circus motif, balloons were hung from the ceiling and clown figures were found on each table. Entertainment was provided by Ab due, The Magician, the "Cokettes," and the Johnny Zarek Trio. The food, served by the businessmen, and the entertainment provided a perfect end to a wonderful evening.

As the early morning hours arrived, King Bob and Queen Ann's reign came to an end; weary prom-goers made their way home and thus ended the 1959 Junior Prom.

Mandy Weikum finds out there is plenty of food to be had at "Carousel."

As the school year of 1958-59 came to a close, West Bend High School had its annual Awards Day Program. After the school awards were distributed, we all settled back to hear who the lucky people would be to receive the community awards.

The Bausch and Lomb Science Award was presented to Bruce Berkholtz by Mr. Grignon. Next, Mrs. Ernest Carter presented the D.A.R. Award to Nancy Bales. John Lay and Joan Race received the American Legion Awards. The West Bend Little Theater Award and the Nina Britton - "Sweet Adeline Award" were given to Dick Faircloth and Jeanne Weiss, respectively. Kay Pleshek and Jim Holt were honored as the most improved debaters of the year. The Pick "Awards of Honor" were bestowed on Beverly Oelhafen and Tom Bast. Nursing scholarships were conferred on Judy Nehrbass and Judy Liesener. Last, the Enger-Kress Fund Scholarship was given to Dan Hahn, while Tom Simester and Joan Race were awarded the Ziegler Foundation Scholarships.

BADGER STATE . . . A LESSON IN GOVERNMENT

An unforgettable event in the lives of WBHS Badger boys and girls was the 1959 Badger State session. West Bend's representatives to the girls' session were Nancy Frank and June Schultz.

During their stay at B. G. S., the girls were active at party meetings, helping to establish local, county, and state governments, electing officers, and finally, at the week's end, paying a visit to our State Capitol Building. During their spare time, they participated in band or chorus programs. The girls gained not only an abundance of practical experience and knowledge in governmental procedures, but they also had an opportunity to meet new friends.

A few days later, Badger Boys State went into session. The following boys from West Bend High School attended: Dave Schultz, Bernie Spaeth, Mike Elsner, Ken Hemauer, Dave Wolf and Doug Fuge.

Each day the boys attended sessions at which they received instruction in some phase of government. However, in the afternoons a free recreation program was set up. This provided them with a great opportunity for making friends. They too had party caucuses, elections, and lectures.

Both Badger Boys and Badger Girls State did great things for its members. Its benefits will be realized in the future. It gave every one of them an insight into the privileges and responsibilities of citizenship and a better understanding of how to be a good citizen.

STUDENT SENATE . . . STUDENT LEADERSHIP IN ACTION

The Student Senators very capably planned the parade, bonfire, and dance and saw to it that this year's homecoming was the best ever staged in the school's history.

Another important task undertaken by the Senate was the completion of the 'Teen-Age Code.' After its completion, it was distributed to parents of West Bend High School students and to anyone who was interested in the code and who wished to obtain a copy of it.

An ant-litter campaign was also conducted by the Senate. Many colorful posters were placed throughout the halls to help publicize the campaign. The senators' efforts in the campaign resulted in a general brightening of the school's appearance.

Besides this the Student Senate assisted with Dads' Night and Awards Day, and it also supervised class elections.

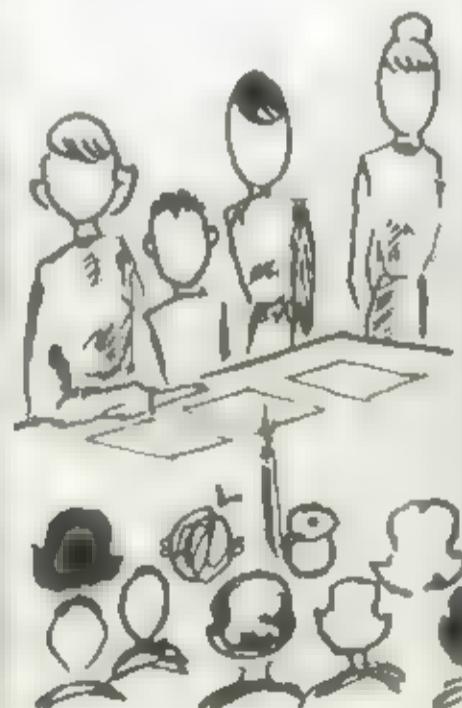

One can readily see that the Student Senate is an essential organization in the school's life and activities. The efforts which its members put forth throughout the year toward the betterment of the school is greatly appreciated by all the students.

'The meeting will now come to order!' This familiar line was heard many times throughout the school year as Gary Koehn opened a meeting of the Student Senate. Gary, as president of the Senate, worked with fellow officers, Vice-president Kay Pleshek and Secretary-treasurer Sue Anderson, to promote the welfare of the school.

The first project undertaken by the Senate was planning the annual Homecoming festivities.

The YAC Council will long be remembered as the hub of social life at WBHS. The purpose of the YAC Council is to plan and govern all social functions to be held in the YAC and assist in snack-bar supervision. YAC Council officers elected this year were: President, June Schultz; Vice-president, Judy Nimitz; and Secretary-treasurer, Sue Bast. The officers, along with Mr. Allen, Recreational Director, guided the Council in planning special activities for this year such as "Dip, Dine and Dance Nite," "Casino Night," and a Halloween party, as well as various other dances and parties. This summer the YAC will sponsor a chicken barbecue.

One of the YAC Council's biggest jobs this year was to plan and decorate for the Midwinter formal dance. Under the chairmanship of Julie Simoneau, the YAC was miraculously transformed into a typical American home with all the Christmas trimmings.

ONE-ACT PLAYS . . . PRESENT COMEDY, TRAGEDY AND DRAMA

A part of school life which can never be forgotten are the annual one-act plays. This year the students did a fine job in bringing us comedy, tragedy and drama.

"How to Capture and Keep a Husband," directed by Mr. Hafemann, was a comedy in which Miss Quackenbush (Virginia O'Meara) demonstrated the art of catching a husband. Remembering this play should bring a smile to everyone's face.

Of a more serious nature, "Joan of Lorraine," directed by Miss Birkholz, was the trial scene of Joan of Arc (Jeanne Weiss) when she was sentenced by the English to die at the stake. The Inquisitor (John Tollack) pleaded with Joan to recant her ideas which brought about her death sentence. Joan did not listen and was burned at the stake.

"Mind-Set" was the story of Augusta Hamilton (Laurie Dunlop), who couldn't decide which suitor she wanted to marry. The story took place in Augusta's mind and that accounts for the unusual scenery used. A fine job was done in this dramatic presentation thanks to Mr. Freeman

Laurie Dunlop, Arnie Scheer, and John Evans go through lines in "Mind --- Set."

Jeanne Weiss is questioned by John Tollack in "Joan of Lorraine."

The art of catching a husband is practiced in "How to Capture and Keep a Husband."

Although football fans at half-time eagerly awaited the announcement, "Presenting the West Bend High School Marching Band," they waited in vain this year. Due to bad weather, the band was never able to present their spirited half-time programs on the football field.

But, all of us were well entertained by the band throughout the rest of the year. It was presented to the community on many occasions such as the Memorial Day parade, the Oil Centennial, and the Christmas parades. The band also displayed its talents at the Spring Concert in May and at the Midwinter Concert in March. Featured at the events were such numbers as "The Unfinished Symphony," "El Cabellero," and "Colonel Bogey."

Besides numerous appearances in West Bend, the band did much traveling during the year. The band brought honors to West Bend High by taking first place at Riverview Park, Illinois as the best co-ordinated marching band in the competition there. They traveled again to Illinois in April to present a concert before the students of Harvard High School.

Band members contribute much in the way of time, co-operation, effort, and desire. Their reward is satisfaction and the praise and compliments they receive from all who hear their music.

HOOTENANNY . . . HIGHLIGHT

Of all the events in school, we will always remember our homecomings. This year homecoming was held on October first and second, only three weeks after school started. It has given us these exciting moments to remember.

Homecoming was officially kicked-off Thursday morning, October first, when Senate V. P., Kay Pleshek, hid the red and white toothpick. Sophomore Dennis Larson found the familiar colors and, as is traditional, had the honor of crowning the 1959 queen and lighting the bonfire.

At 7:30 on that evening, the homecoming parade started rolling. Students this year outdid themselves in their floats, and their colorful creations will remain in our memories a long time. First place float honors went to Miss Frandsen's senior homeroom with the theme "We'll Swallow All But De-feet." Second place went to Mr. Runge's homeroom and third to Mr. Grignon's.

As the crowd followed the parade down Main Street and to the city park, the long-awaited moment was drawing near. After speeches by John M. Pick, Supt. Paul Loofboro, Principal Fred Schultz, and football captain Curt Kissinger, Dennis Larson walked up to the platform and placed the crown on the senior candidate, Sally Standfield. Following the crowning, everyone walked across the bridge and enjoyed a warm evening near the bonfire.

After the bonfire and pep meeting activities were over, everyone eagerly awaited the big game Friday night; West Bend played host to Beaver Dam. Even with a muddy field, the Badgers plowed through and chalked up a 12-6 victory!

Following that anticipated victory, everyone was in the mood for dancing — and dance they did — to the wonderful music of the Top-Hatters! The decorations consisted of red-white streamers and footballs scattered throughout the gym.

At 10:30 the Queen and her Court led the Grand March through the gym; as they went around the room, the football players and their dates joined in.

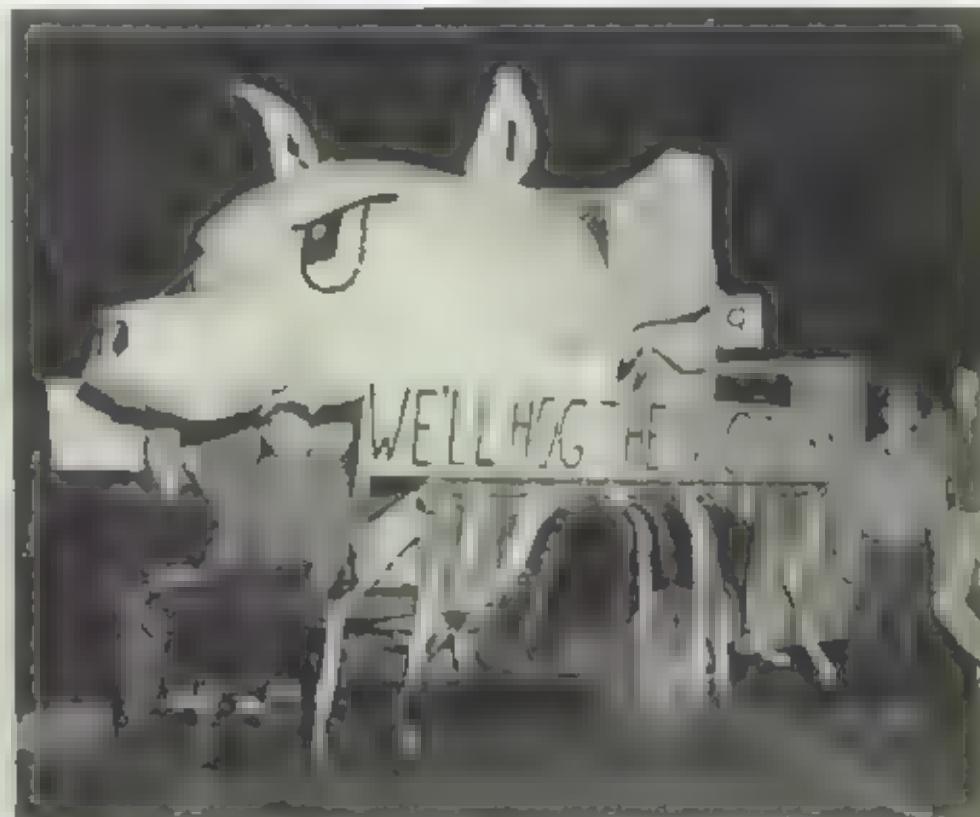

In just another short hour, the 1959 Homecoming festivities came to a close, but the memories that came with them shall linger on and on.

Then and only then
Will we have peace."*

MASAHISA HAYASHI
Chiba-Ken, Japan

This year at West Bend is rapidly coming to a close, and, as the days slip away, I realize more and more what a wonderful experience this has been for me - both from the standpoint of trying to fulfill the AFS purpose which is to foster understanding among the people of the earth, and also for providing me with opportunities which will undoubtedly enlarge my intellect.

I came here knowing little or nothing about the American people, but I'll return to Argentina to tell my people what you are really like.

I want to thank you for all the things you've done for me, from the unforgettable phone call to my parents at Christmas, to the friendly, everyday, "Hi, Irene," that made me feel at home.

As the years go by, I may forget some of your names, but I will never forget your faces and deeds. Since I cannot guarantee that when the time for my departure comes I will see you all, this is a good chance to say goodbye. So, "Adios" and once again "Muchas gracias!"

"Time flies like an arrow," as the old saying goes, for this wonderful year is passing away too quickly. Looking back, I realize what a marvelous time I have had! How much I have learned about America in this year!

The benefits and valuable experiences I have had here can't be compared with those which I might have had in Japan. I was very surprised at the prejudices I had while still in Japan. People can be quite different, even exactly opposite, in their customs, manners, and the way in which they live. Yet, neither of the two is wrong. We Japanese cannot judge other people by our standards, for such judgment has caused a great deal of trouble in our history. It is said that Japanese people are very narrow-minded, partly because of their geographical situation, and partly from being an isolated island kingdom for such a long time. I am sure I have become much more generous in my outlook since I came here.

Everybody has been so kind to me here in West Bend that I have felt quite at home. I really must say "thank you," from the bottom of my heart for the warm welcome, kindness, and generosity you have shown me.

Our varsity debaters this year were Sue Anderson, Jeff Hoy Steve Werner, and Mike Johnson, with their coach, Mr. McMillion

Once again debate boxes became a common sight in the school as the debaters began preparing for the fall tournaments. This year Mr. Arthur McMillion coached the debaters in the absence of Mr. Bertram who was an exchange teacher in Turin, Italy.

Mr. McMillion was head of the largest debate group in Wisconsin and did a fine job teaching the fundamentals of rhetoric. Among the accomplishments achieved this year were a first place in the La Crosse tournament and a first place by the "B" team in the Merrill tournament. The "A" team participated in the sectional, district, and state tournaments.

That the teams were so successful this year was due not only to the enthusiasm and diligent work of the debaters, but also to the work of their new coach, Mr. McMillion, who did an outstanding job in debate at WBHS during the past year. Congratulations to Mr. McMillion and the entire team for their splendid record.

CLIPPER . . .

"READ ALL ABOUT IT"

Although little is seen or heard of the "Clipper" between issues, much time and work is spent on this publication behind the scenes. Under the guidance of Mr. Jacobson, our advisor, editors Judy Wiedmeyer and Penny Harth headed the busy Clipper staff.

The front page of the Clipper always contained the important stories and "scoops." Each issue recaptured the thrills of sporting events and brought the student up to date with news on what was happening. Always eagerly awaited was the "What's New" section and the columns written by columnists, Laurel Justman and Mike Johnson.

Jeff Hoy acted as sports editor, and kept the students posted on the latest happenings in the sports world.

The "Clipper" was printed bi-weekly on a regular schedule by Mr. Sommers and distributed the next morning.

Members of the staff this year consisted of Judy Wiedmeyer, editor; Penny Harth, associate editor; and feature writers -- Janet Klumb, Laurel Justman, June Schultz, Kay Weinert, Sandy Steinmetz, Judy Nintz, Mary Hess, Louise Sacia, Mike Johnson, and Jeff Hoy.

Besides the work completed by the regular staff members writing during the regular Clipper period, much help was also given by students interested in writing and who were not staff regulars.

Since there was no journalism class this year, staff members had extra work in reporting and writing stories. The entire staff, as well as Mr. Jacobson, deserves credit for a fine record which will be remembered by all.

MIDWINTER . . . ENHANCING THE CHRISTMAS SEASON

Students attending the annual "Snowball" will always remember how completely the YAC was transformed into a cozy bazaar in the midst of a winter wonderland. As the guests walked through the door, the smell of fresh pine boughs put them in a holiday mood. In the center of the bazaar a Christmas tree glistened in full splendor. Off to the side a cozy fireplace gave an inviting glow while dancers were served the sweets that accompany the gay Christmas season. While dancing to the wonderful music of Chico Fernandez, we looked out the many windows scattered throughout the room to behold scenes of snow capped hills and pine trees. Christmas colors were displayed throughout the room along with wreaths, adding to the wonderful holiday atmosphere. Looking in through frosted windows cheerful carolers reminded us that this was a time for singing and laughter.

The decorations for the dance sponsored by the YAC council were under the chairmanship of Julie Simonian and Mr. Aiken. It truly enhanced the Christmas season and will long be held among our fondest memories.

HOBO-HOP . . . SENIORS MAKE SUPERB HOBOS

Al Boerger crowns Hobo-Hop Queen Judy Schober and King John Tollack.

On February 26th, the seniors had their night to shine for this was the date of the annual Hobo-Hop. Well over one hundred seniors entered the YAC dressed in their best "Sunday-go-to-meetin' clothes."

This traditional event attracted many underclassmen who were eager to see those "sophisticated mature seniors" in informal attire. To the accompaniment of the music of Al Boerger the hobos and "hobolettes" staged the grand march and displayed their attire. The seniors sang many school songs in the center of the floor, while the officers of the other classes observed and judged the various costumes. The judges finally selected the royalty for the 1960 Hobo-Hop --- Queen Judy Schober and King John Tollack. The royal pair was selected on the basis of originality of costumes.

All the seniors who participated thoroughly enjoyed acting like "bums," for never again would they appear as anything except mature young adults. However, after observing their actions at the Hobo-Hop, it was difficult to believe that they could ever act differently.

Two unidentified members of the 1960 Hobo-Hop Court were this gruesome twosome.

CHORUS . . . THEY SING FOR ENJOYMENT

Mr. Cupery in Wals Tews' clock the set.

This year the Choral Department of WBHS outdid itself in the number of performances given.

Early in the year, the Mixed Ensemble was selected and was kept busy with many singing engagements. The early months of the school year were devoted to preparations for the Christmas Concert, in which the A Capella Choir, Mixed Chorus, Mixed Ensemble, and all Glee Clubs participated.

Certainly to be remembered is the staging of the annual musical comedy. This year's production, under the direction of Mr. S. J. Cupery, was "Finian's Rainbow" presented on March 18 and 19 as well as March 25 and 26. Miss Fogtman and Mrs. Flieman worked hard as our choreographers, while alumnus Joel Cook designed our scenery. Their efforts certainly gave "professional polish" to the show. All in all this year was a real success for our Choral Department, thanks to Mr. Cupery!

ORCHESTRA . . . DISPLAYS TALENT AT CONCERTS

Mr. Schleif shows an interesting movie to his orchestra group

The high school orchestra is another one of the groups which adds talent to the music department. This is probably one of the most difficult and unusual phases of music for high school students to participate in, but, under the capable direction of Mr. David Schleif, the orchestra turned out some wonderful music.

The orchestra is composed of a string section, numbering eight, and various percussion, brass, and reed instruments from the band. Several members were able to represent the orchestra at the Music Clinic at Madison.

Besides entertaining at the county teachers' meeting, the orchestra also participated in the spring and Christmas concerts. Their repertoire of selections included such offerings as "Sarabond," "Deep Purple," "The Song of Jupiter," and songs from the musical, "The King and I." In addition, they did an excellent job in rendering the music of Tchaikovsky and Mozart.

Due to the hard work of the members and Mr. Schleif, the orchestra has been improving steadily. This is only the third year that the orchestra has been functioning, yet they performed well at every event they participated in.

Bottom row — A. Scheer, B. Maaske, G. Hoy, G. Schutt, B. Burekhardt, B. Neumann, E. Skuldt, K. Skuldt, J. Tollack, J. Metz, M. Sheski, C. Anderson

Recognizing students who have shown outstanding achievement in scholarship, leadership, character, and service has been the aim of the National Honor Society since it was created at West Bend High School in 1950. Any junior or senior who has attended West Bend High School for at least one semester and has maintained a B average or better is eligible for membership.

Elections are held once each semester. Those students chosen for membership during the first semester were — Seniors: Carol Anderson, Bill Burekhardt, Mike Johnson, Gary Koehn, Bill Maaske, Judy Proebel, Judy Ryan, Arnie Scheer, John Tollack, Kathy Wagner, and Anne Williams; Juniors: Jane Bauer, Linda Baumann, Noreen Bohn, Sue Bradley, Paul Fisher, Jeanne Hammes, John Metz, Kenney Schowalter, Gary Schutt, Marv Sheski, Eric Skuldt, Karen Skuldt, and Ruth Wegener.

The new members were initiated into the organization in October. Superintendent Lothboro was the guest speaker. He also presented the membership cards to the initiates.

FORENSICS . . . PORTRAYING TALENT IN SPEECH

SCHOOL CLINIC WINNERS: Booker T. Washington, Don L. Martin, Franklin S. Parker, Samuel M. Jackson, W. D. D. Brown, John W. Walker, Jake S. Sorenson, Kathy Walker, Belle G. Van, Levi L. Sorenson, Carolynne C. Van, John J. Sorenson, July Sorenson, Carol Walker.

Jeanne Weiss, Jim Barber, and Judy Nintz received an "A" rating at the state contest for their play, "Pride and Prejudice."

Dianne Opgenorth did interpretive reading in forensic work.

The year 1960 will always be remembered at WBHS as one of its most successful in forensics. During the year, WBHS students captured many honors in public speaking.

The first contest in which our speakers were entered was the Little Ten meet. Out of a possible seventeen 'As' WBHS speakers received thirteen 'A' ratings. These winners then moved on to Cedarburg for the District contest. At this contest WBHS orators took eight 'A' ratings. These eight students as a result qualified for the State contest and were as follows: Carol Anderson, Jim Barber, DeeDee Brown, Tom Kester, Dan McLellan, Judy Nantz, Mandy Werkam, and Jeanne Weiss. At the State contest at Madison, all but two students were awarded "A" ratings.

The final contest was the State NEL Tournament held at Rapon during the Easter vacation. We shall never forget how excellently Laurie Dunlop, Judy Nimitz, and Mandy Wekum performed there. Laurie placed fourth in serious declamation, Judy took a third place in humorous declamation, and Mandy took first in the girls' extemporaneous speaking competition, which qualified her for the National NEL Tournament.

SENIOR CLASS PLAY . . . "THE IMPORTANCE OF BEING EARNEST"

John Evans, Mike Johnson, Bill Burkhardt, Arnie Scheer, Sandy Behm, and Karen Rheingans portray a scene from the play

"The Importance of Being Earnest" was chosen as this year's senior class play. The play was directed by Mr. Halemann and produced by Mr. Freeman.

The setting is England, the year, 1895. The opening scene reveals Algy Moncrieff (Mike Johnson) going over last minute arrangements for a tea with his servant, Lane (John Evans). Expected at the tea are Gwendoline Fairfax (Karen Rheingans) and her mother, Lady Bracknell (Ruth Koll). Jack Worthing (Arnie Scheer), a friend of Algy's, also arrives and expresses his love for Gwendoline.

In the second act at Manor House, Miss Prism (Marilyn Yogerst) is seen tutoring Jack's ward, Cecily Cardew (Sandy Behm). Cecily, who is in love with Algy, believes that his name is Ernest. In a discussion between Gwendoline and Cecily, it is discovered that each has accepted marriage proposals from the same man, Ernest. Reverend Chasuble (Bill Burkhardt), a friend of the Manor House residents, makes several entrances, but not without expressing his interest in Miss Prism.

During the last act, much confusion is resolved when Lady Bracknell announces that Jack and Algy are brothers. She also discloses the fact that Jack was actually christened Ernest. As the curtain falls on the third act, it appears as though several marriages are likely to occur.

Pat Bradley played the part of Merriman, Jack's butler, and Anne Williams had the role of a servant.

BEND . . . REVIEWING THE YEAR'S ACTIVITIES

Students of WBHS.

Another school year is almost over, and the 1960 Bend has been distributed to you. We hope you will be as proud of it as we are. We have worked long and hard to bring you this book.

There have been many people responsible for the publication of this yearbook. We especially want to thank our printers, the Washington County Publishing Company, Mr. Fred Baxter, Mr. Raymond Punzl, and Mr. Wallace Benson, our advisors, and our wonderful staff.

Since the Bend is essentially a pictorial review, our photographers were extremely important. We are grateful to the West Bend News, Bob Boltz, Steve Benedict, and Masahisa Hayashi for their fine photos. Our art editors, Linda Baumann and June Schultz, supplemented the pictures with their clever cartoons.

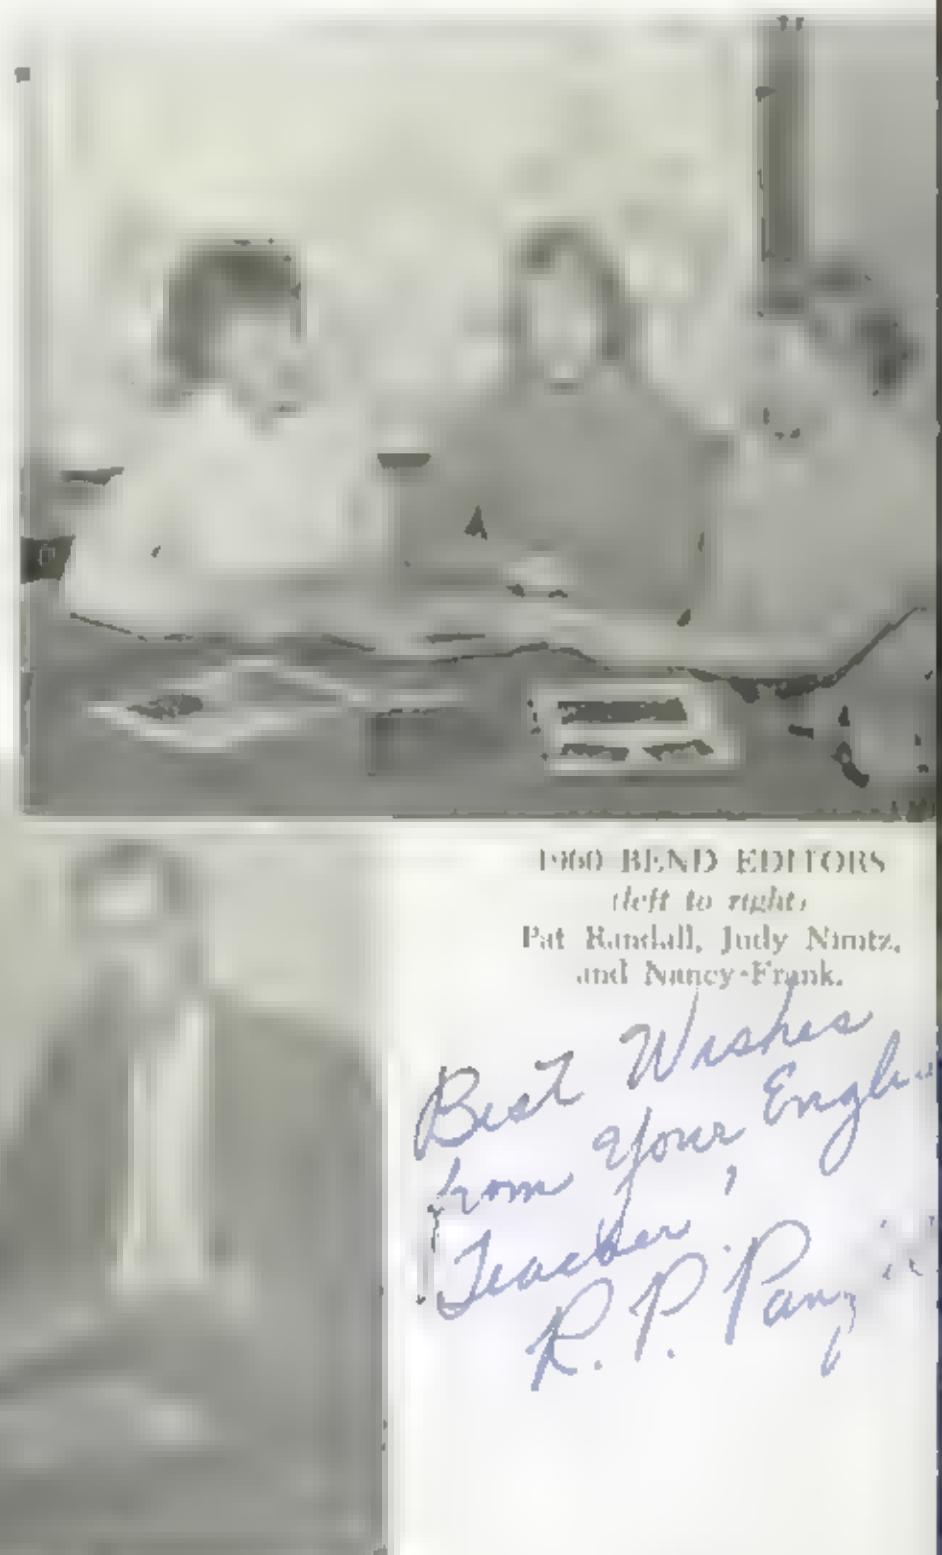

Not to be forgotten is our capable business manager, Lee Hembel. Also working in this line were Gerri Smith, Dianne Opgenorth, and their advertising staff.

Our staff has done a fine job in writing stories; therefore we extend thanks to them.

We hope the 1960 Bend will be a source of pleasure to you now and in the future.

When the hot days of August are spent and the cool evenings of September toll around the minds of boys turn toward the gridiron. The situation in West Bend is no different from that anywhere else. This past fall over thirty boys tried out for varsity football. All of them were bent on beating Oconomowoc, the team with whom we tied for the championship the previous year.

The season opened with a non-conference game against Sheboygan Central and even though the statistics showed otherwise we wound up on the short end of a 116 score. The Badgers sought revenge the next week and got it at the expense of Hartland Arrowhead to the tune of 25-0.

The fellow who regulates the faucets must have felt a pond was necessary for the game with Beaver Dam, as it was after much slipping, sloshing and splashing that the Beavers finally succumbed. The final score was 12-6. In Watertown, believe it or not, it did not rain and even though the field was soggy and the Goslings "out-statisticied" us, we were victorious 13-7.

When the team played Berlin the next week they literally scalped the Indians 46-7.

BUT SUCCESSFUL SEASON

Badgers in action on muddy field

The next Friday the field was a mud puddle. Game postponed! Saturday it was a quagmire. Game postponed! By Monday night it was a full-fledged lake, but the varsity gridlers were used to it by this time and drowned the Ironmen from Mayville, 32-6.

In the next game with Hartford at Hartford the lights went out with the Badgers leading 6-0 in the first half. Nobody could get the lights to operate again and the game went into the books as "abbreviated" but complete.

Finally the day came—the game with Oconomowoc to decide the championship. The game was bitterly fought with neither team giving up much ground; however, the final score was against the Badgers, 18-6. We had tried hard, but we had lost.

Seventeen senior letter winners are graduating this spring, leaving six juniors and three sophomores to make the nucleus of next year's team.

A cheerleader plays an essential role in school activities. Enthusiastic cheering as well as team backing are necessary if the teams are to be victorious. It is up to the cheerleaders to encourage students to attend pep meetings and games and to cheer the team on.

Working with our cheerleading squad this year was Miss Fogtman, who helped in organizing new cheers and stunts. Several skits were put on at pep meetings, to the delight of the students. "The History of Cheerleading" depicted cheering in several eras and "Types of Spectators" represented the different types of spectators one can find at a basketball game.

Along with the "A" and "B" squads the Freshman squad, which was chosen in the middle of the season, also displayed some peppy cheering. The squad consisted of: Sue Jeffery, Joan Knoebel, Joan Lemke, Diane Schultz, Diane Simons, and Mary Weber.

Cross-Country team lines up for practice run

A colorful fall day is one of the unforgettable sights of our Badger campus. A familiar sight, too, at that time of year, is our harrier squad testing their speed over the rugged 2.2 mile cross country course. The Badger squad, under the direction of Coach Cross, was eager to make 1959 the best season in WBHS history.

Finishing with a season record of 3 and 3 in dual meets, the harriers moved on to the invitational and post-season contests. After placing fourth in the Port Washington Invitational, the Badgers took the Little Ten Schools by surprise when, with some top-notch running, they finished a close second behind Oconomowoc.

After three years of placing second in the Little Ten, the Badgers will be out to break tradition in 1960. With returning lettermen Ronald Wagner, Dave Charlton, and Delbert Schneider, Coach Bob Cross and the squad are looking forward to first place in the conference meet next fall.

For O'Meara does an inward dive, piked position.

Their hard work paid off! In dual meets, our swim team splashed to a 5-5 record. An interesting observation on the part of Coach Warren Bowlus was that three of the above meet losses could easily have been reversed. The difference between losses and victory? A combined total of one yard!

The squad's achievements in other meets were quite impressive. In the North Shore Invitational, West Bend placed second among six schools. A second place was scored in a triangular meet with Nicolet and Waukesha. In the 13-team Cardinal Relays, our boys were a creditable seventh. The boys really started churning, however, when they skinned to a second place finish in the Sectionals and to a ninth place in the State Meet in which 28 schools were entered. In the State, our free-style relay team, composed of Jack Stoltz, Alan Becker, Mike Nicholson, and Tom Weber, posted the sixth best time. Mike Nicholson came through with a fourth in the 50-yard free-style event.

Of the fourteen major letter winners on this year's squad, only five will be returning. However, there are a number of boys ready to step into the breach to make next year's squad even stronger.

WRESTLING . . . MATMEN DOWN OPPONENTS

The second year of varsity wrestling at WBHS came to a close with our team showing great improvement over their initial year. The boys wound up in third place in Little Ten Conference competition, with a 7-2 record. (Last year it was 0-7.) Their overall record this season was 7-4. A third place finish in the West Bend Invitational Meet served as a satisfying climax.

At the end of the season came the real test of our team's strength. In the Regional Tournament we placed second as a team, qualifying five boys—Fred Bales, Roger Frank, Norm Korneli, Jerry Stangl, and Ron Wolf for the Sectional Tournament. Of the five boys who competed in the Sectionals, two of the boys, Fred Bales and Jerry Stangl, qualified for the state tournament. We placed fourth, as a team, out of eleven schools entered in the Sectionals.

*First row --- Coach Day, D. Hammet, A. Merkel, B. Caldwell, T. Michels, W. Larsen, J. Haebig

Soon after the close of a successful gridiron season, the Badger rooters turned their attention to the basketball court. As the opening practice sessions were held under the direction of our new coach, Mr. Rollo Taylor, the future of WBHS eagles looked very promising.

The competition in the 11th Ten was extremely keen as was attested by the fact that at mid-season the Badgers had won only two conference games. However, initiating a press defense and a fast break, the team bounced back and knocked off Arrowhead, Waupun, and Ripon on three successive weekends. The boys finished out the season by taking three more conference victories and compiling a 7-4 record.

In the Sub-regional tourney, the Badger squad walked off over Cedarburg by a 74-44 score and smothered Hartford 58-53. Traveling to the Regional at Whitefish Bay, the squad turned back an aggressive Granville team by a 65-61 margin and took the consolation title.

SKIERS . . . CHALLENGERS OF THE SLOPES

This year's team was especially hampered by only enough snow for about two practices. Most other teams had the advantage of several weeks of practice before the meet. Considering this, our team performed excellently at the Wausau meet.

The prospects for next year's season are very promising with Tom O'Meara, Niles and Roger Sacia returning for competition.

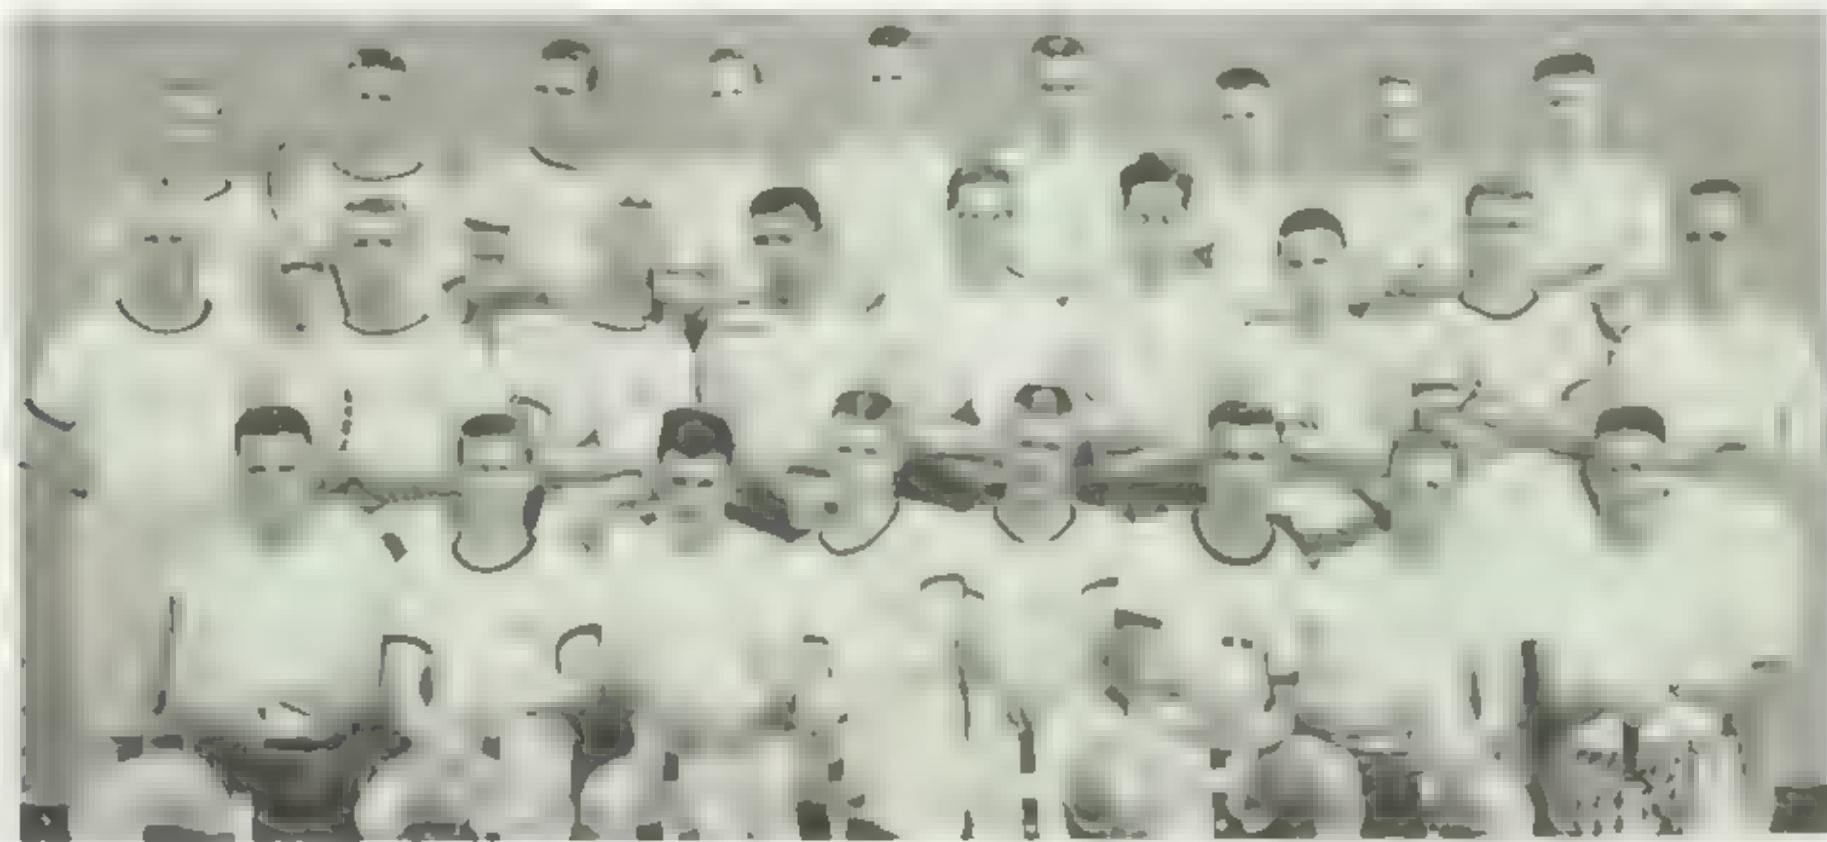

On the cold, damp evening of January 29, the Badger Ski Club ventured to Wausau, Wisconsin, to participate in the annual WIAA State High School Meet. The 1960 team members were Gary Koehn, Dave and Tom O'Meara, Niles and Roger Sacia, and John Tollack. Early the following morning these boys, along with Coach Strohacker, were busily preparing for the downhill and slalom events which were to be run that day.

A total of fifty-five entries, representing eleven schools, competed for team honors. The WBHS squad did well in the morning downhill races, although several of the team members took bad spills on the icy run. By virtue of two disqualifications, the Badgers were not eligible for top honors, but they did place seventh in the meet.

As Old Man Winter finally left the WBHS campus, the Badger netmen again took to the tennis courts. The Little Ten Champs of 1958 were hindered at first by inclement weather. With Steve Roecker as the only returning letterman, Coach Hildebrand also had the problem of rebuilding his entire squad. After a few weeks the team had the nucleus of another potential winner. Much of the newly found talent came from the junior class.

The season began and the team was very successful in its first three meets. Steve Roecker, Claude Beck, and Alan Becker turned in stellar performances in these meets. By mid-season the squad had gained confidence and experience. Our netmen completed their schedule with a commendable record of 6 wins, 4 losses, and 2 ties.

In the Sectional Meet held here, the Badgers qualified for the State contest by finishing second only one point behind the winning Sheboygan North team. The doubles team of Klein and Becker, and the singles men Claude Beck and Steve Roecker traveled to Nicolet for the State meet. The team closed the season with high hopes for 1960, for all eight lettermen on this year's squad will return to competition.

"Runners to your marks. Get set. Bang!" The race is under way. This is a common cry heard in the springtime by anyone who ventures near the cindered oval behind the new addition. This past spring, many boys left their tracks imprinted, literally and figuratively, upon our track. Guided by head coach, Bob Strohaecker; distance coach, Bob Cross; weight coach, Bob Caldwell; and hurdles coach, Ken Schermacher, our trackmen came up with a record of three first places, and one second place.

The first place finishes were compiled at the expense of Hartford and Port Washington in a triangular meet, and against Cedarburg and Menomonee Falls in dual meets. In the West Bend Invitational, which was held at Hartford because of our lack of facilities, we tied for first place with Oconomowoc. The second place finish was compiled at the Port Relays. Two meets were cancelled because of rain. In the Little Ten Freshman-Sophomore meet our future stars placed second.

Individually, the team members also did a fine job, two boys qualified for the state meet: Tom Schowalter in the half-mile and Curt Kissinger in the pole vault. Two school records also fell, one to Schowalter in the half-mile, with a time of 2:03.4, the other to our 880-yard relay team composed of Paul Fisher, Pete Toubro, Bill King, and Jim Fellenz with a time of 1:35.2.

By the end of the season, twenty-one boys had earned their letters: seven seniors, eight juniors, five sophomores, and one freshman. Two of the underclassmen withdrew leaving twelve returning lettermen for 1960.

"Pop" Grignon coaches seniors Clyde Allen, John Lav, Pat Kenny, and Tom Bast

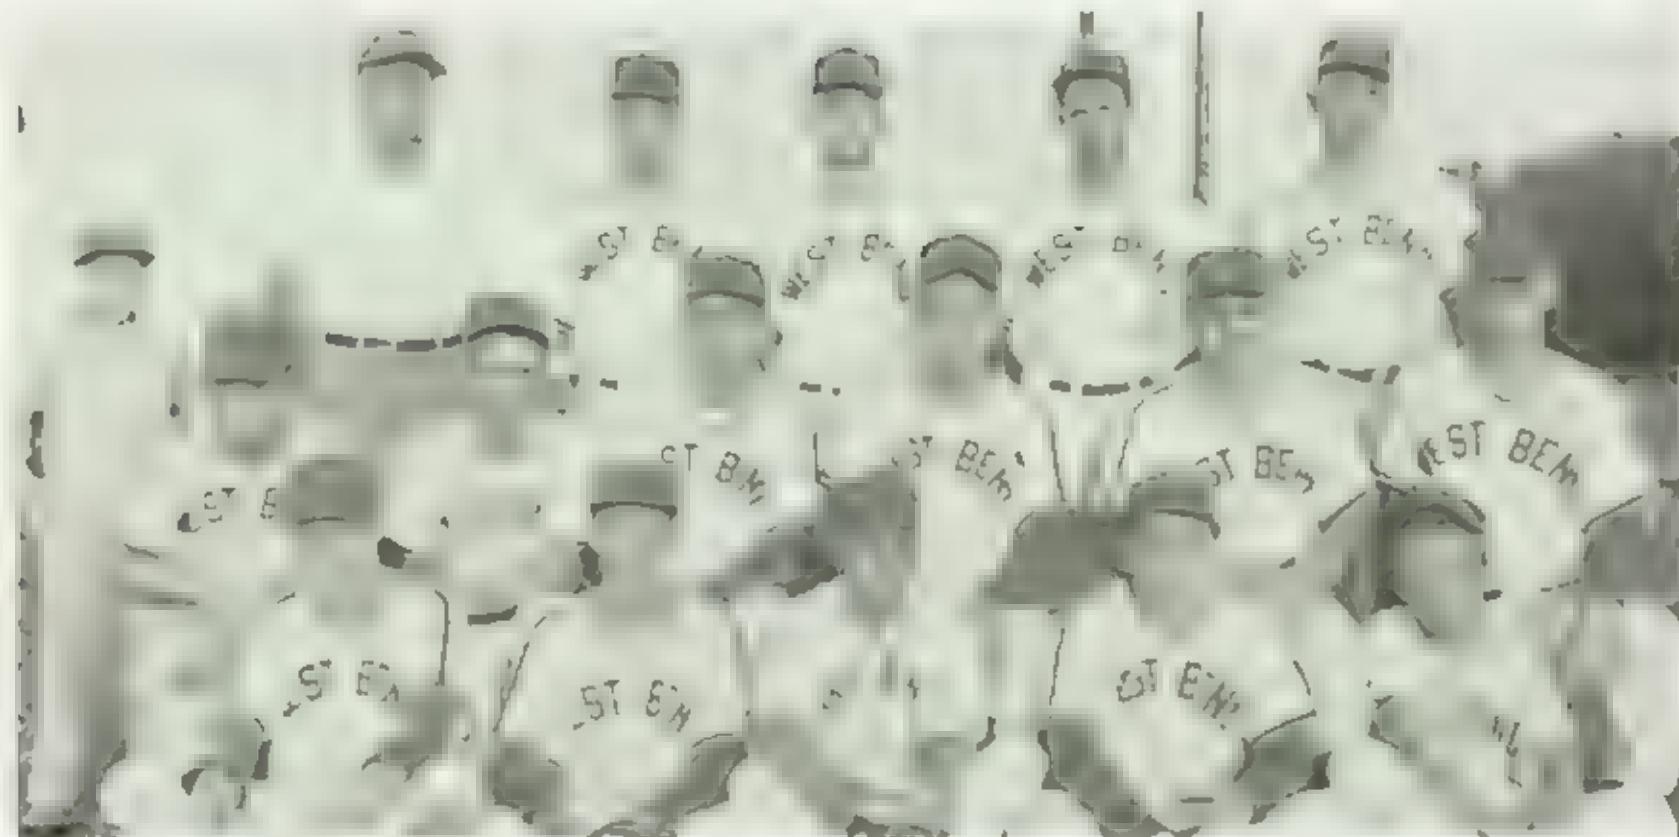

The 1959 Badger links squad started the season early in March by holding indoor practice in our new gym. With the onset of spring, the Badgers took to the fairways and greens under the watchful eye of veteran golf mentor, "Pop" Grignon. The backbone of this year's squad consisted of three 1958 letter-winners — Clyde Allen, Tom Bast, and Pat Kenny. Those who alternated in the fourth-man position were underclassmen Jim Vandeloo, Dick Backus, and Jim Weiss.

Little Ten golf conference play was divided into two sections. West Bend opened play in the Southern Conference on April 25th, along with Oconomowoc, Mayville, Hartford and Beaver Dam. Each team held one home tournament during the season.

The Little Ten All-Conference meet saw Oconomowoc take the team title, while our Badgers placed eighth in the rugged competition.

Our three 1959 lettermen, Clyde, Tom, and Pat were lost to the team through graduation. During the summer months, however, prospective Badger golfers were preparing for competition in 1960.

For the Badgers did not strike out!"*

Yes, our battling Badgers took to the diamond in fine fashion this past summer, and, after a sparkling season, posted a commendable record of 10 wins, 3 losses, and 2 ties (games which were called because of darkness). In Little Ten Conference play, our boys won 5 and lost 2, placing second behind Hartford. Ironically enough, the Badgers had beaten the champion Orioles twice during the season, once in conference play and once in a non-conference game. At the end of the 1959 season, Mark Mayer was elected honorary captain.

The summer schedule for 1960 will be altered somewhat according to Coach Carl Kuss. We will not be competing in Little Ten Conference baseball; instead we will compete in a new league which is being formed. This new league includes teams from Port Washington, Cedarburg, Mequon, West Bend, Menomonee Falls, and Granville. A number of other schools in the area are also contemplating joining the new league.

WE HONOR . . . OUR SENIOR ATHLETES

Although our athletic teams have on their rosters many boys who have contributed a great deal towards winning victories, we cannot single them all out for individual recognition. Therefore, we asked the coaches to pick the outstanding senior boy in each sport. They selected the following:

TOM SCHOWALTER — TRACK. Tom, this year, broke a school record in the 880-yard run. He also qualified for the state meet with a 2:03 4 half mile.

BERNIE SPAETH — FOOTBALL. Bernie's ability in football was recognized by his teammates as he was chosen the most valuable player on the squad. Bernie was the leading ground gainer and one of the leaders in tackling and pass receiving.

TOM WEBER — SWIMMING. Versatile Tom Weber is a two-year letter winner and holds or shares five pool records. This year Tom was chosen captain of the swimming team.

MARK MAYER — BASEBALL. Mark is accorded by his coach to be the best third baseman in the baseball history of WBHS. Mark's outstanding work is not confined to playing third base, for he can pitch and play first base as well.

JOHN KLEIN — BASKETBALL. John has been on the varsity basketball squad for four years. This year John was second highest scorer on the team. John's teammates elected him honorary captain of the squad, while other coaches chose him for the "Sub-Regional All-Star Team."
